

Mrs Johanne JOSEPH

Independent Director

Johanne Joseph is a tax lawyer practising at the Mauritian bar and the founder of Prism Chambers, a boutique tax law firm in Mauritius. She is also qualified as a solicitor of England & Wales since 2007 and has worked for many years in London, at magic circle law firm Linklaters LLP and in-house at US investment bank JPMorgan Chase Bank. She has significant experience on tax legislation in the UK, Mauritius and a number of African countries and routinely advises multinational and domestic clients on their contentious and transactional tax issues. She assists clients in connection with audits, investigations and assessments by the Mauritius Revenue Authority and appears for her clients before the Assessment Review Committee and the Supreme Court of Mauritius on tax-related matters. She sits on the Tax committee of Mauritius Finance. Johanne also regularly lectures on Tax at the Université de Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas. She is also a Director of MCB Leasing Limited.
